

What to Bring

Here are some things to remember as you pack your stuff to come to Camp Outreach. In all things, remember that this is a Christian event. Please bring your favorite Bible, and remember to send some prayers in advance.

Clothing:

Out of respect for others, and in accordance with our Christian standards, all clothing should be modest.

- Camp Outreach t-shirts from previous years
- Old work clothes (They will likely be ruined!)(Note: If you do not already have one, you will be provided with a “Camp Outreach” work t-shirt which you will wear every day on the job sites)
- Comfortable casual wear for evenings
- Church clothes/nice casual and shoes
- Comfortable work shoes/boots
- Swimwear (Note that the pool requires actual swimwear, and not cut-offs, etc.)

Toiletries:

- Sunscreen
- Insect repellent
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Soap
- Shampoo and conditioner
- Deodorant (extra strength!)
- Comb or brush

Bedding and Linens:

You will have a comfortable bunk bed in an air-conditioned dorm, but you must bring your own bedding.

- Sleeping bag -OR- twin sheets with twin blanket
- Pillow and pillow case
- 2 Towels
- Washcloth

Tools:

If you have a favorite paint brush or other tools, please feel free to mark them clearly and bring them. It is not necessary to bring tools if you don't regularly use them.

Miscellaneous:

- Games - please feel free to bring things like football, Frisbee, cards and other games
- Drinks and Snacks – please keep in mind that we will not have a kitchen available
